IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ: By submitting your order form and donation, you acknowledge the following: You as the parent or legal guardian of the child creating the tile, acknowledge and understand that each tile is an "original work of art" and the "original work of art" cannot be recreated or duplicated if something should happen to the tile prior to installation or after it is in place on the wall. Although care will be taken to prevent breakage prior to installation and routine maintenance will take place after installation, there is NO GUARANTEE in any way as to the lifetime of the tile or the wall in which it is placed. The school and church will use reasonable efforts to maintain the wall and the tiles placed on the wall for a minimum of 10 years. After that time the school and/or church may remove, replace or retain the tiles at the school's discretion. The school and/or church reserve the right, at their determination, to remove the tiles at anytime for health and safety reasons.
